NATURAL Wonders

Named for the verdant valleys of L.A., McGuire Furniture's new Canyon Collection unites the company's classic forms with the modern architecture of Marmol Radziner. The elegant, cleverly constructed furniture, fabrics and housewares are crafted from solid oak, white bronze, natural rawhide and planed rattan. A gently sloped coffee table and low-slung sectional resemble custom pieces Marmol Radziner has created for clients including Tom Ford. "We sought to design pieces that would suit a relaxed California lifestyle," says Ron Radziner, the firm's design principal, "wherever a person might reside." mcguirefurniture.com.
